January 2014 Issue 42

Dear Stitches,

We hope you all had a great holiday season and look forward to an energetic and creative New Year with a new crop of patterns for you to enjoy! We hope you will find them fun and easy to stitch.

- VICTORIAN BASKETS - Two versions of this delightful Basket - we worked them in Glitz threads and they are really pretty! Pastel floral sequins added a nice touch to the second version.
- BABY CRIB - Worked in Pink or Blue Glitz with a tied silk ribbon bow, what could be sweeter?
- FLORAL SPRAY - A Sprig of Purple Blooms which would be lovely on a smaller square of card trimmed with fancy scissors then laid on a purple card.
- CHESS KNIGHT - inspiration drawn from a 50 year old oddment of wrapping paper! The first of a set yet to come. Perfect for a man or a chess enthusiast of any age. Trim to a smaller size, lay on gold card and then onto black for a rich effect.

Happy Stitching, Sue in Cape Town and Liz in Australia

Hello to all our Prick 'n Stitch friends from a very, very HOT Albury.

First of all let me say Ned & I WISH YOU ALL A VERY HAPPY, HEALTHY 2014!

I expect you will be surprised to hear from us but I have missed writing my little piece for the News Letter so asked Sue if she would mind me sending you a few lines just so we can keep in touch.

Thanks to Marie, Carol, Mei, Lucy, Edward & Laeta among others that have phoned/e-mailed us over the past few months – we really appreciate your calls. It was rather sad closing the Australian Branch but on the other hand we are so grateful to have made many friends during the nine years we have been here, actually hard to believe it has been that long already as it just seems the other day we were waving goodbye to Cape Town.

Ned is keeping fairly well although the hide and seek is a daily routine now looking for misplaced items such as Keys/ glasses etc – totally amazing what we find in the garden shed or even fridge at times! I was a bit under the weather in November having Bells Palsy, thankfully didn't last too long so now back to my usual self, apart from feeling the heat! Our daughter, Michelle, sends us pictures of all the snow in her garden in Bulgaria so we can think "cool"!! Never mind, suppose it won't be long and the winter will be here once again – time just seems to go so quickly these days.

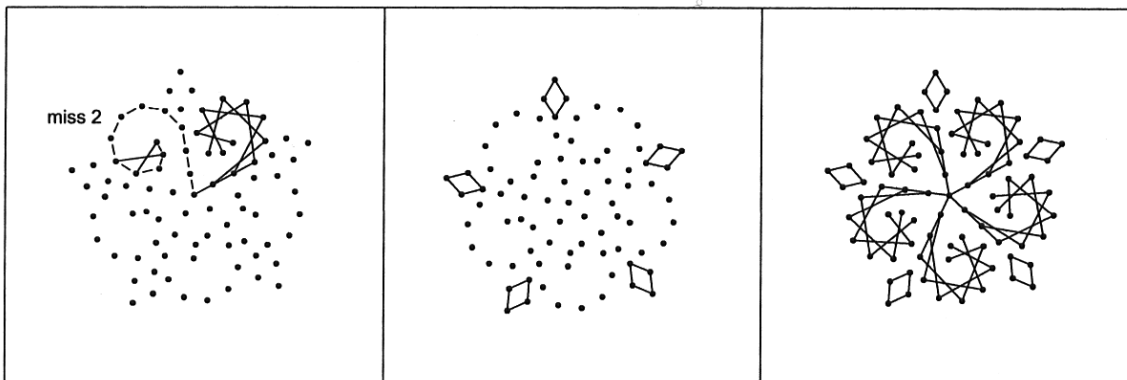

I have enjoyed stitching and checking over the latest Designs which Sue has so cleverly come up with and do hope you enjoy them as much as I have. Something for everyone which will be a good addition to our design files! Keep those fingers moving!!

Keep well every one and of course HAPPY STITCHING!

Best Wishes
Liz & Ned
