April 2016 Issue 48

Dear Stitches,

It's April already and it is almost time for this swallow to fly off to the UK again! Brookdale Ave. will be closed from 1st May until 3rd October for all sales but if you would like downloads, you can email me as usual and I will have the files with me.

- The first of this quarter's designs is a very simple Yacht - Quick & Easy to do. I worked it in Blue Glitz and loved the look of it.
Pricking - 7 minutes, Stitching - approx. 45 minutes.
- "Wedding Dove" This is a card for a Special Couple with love from You. Gold on White or mixed Silver/Gold, you choose.
Pricking - 15 minutes, Stitching - approx. 1½ hours.
- "All Dressed Up" This lovely Evening Dress (or Wedding Dress depending on the colour of thread and card that you choose) is a pleasure to sew and looks stunning when completed..
Pricking - 30 minutes, Stitching - approx. 2 hours.

Happy Stitching from Sue in Cape Town and Liz in Albury

Hello fellow stitchers,

Glad to say we are now into Autumn with lovely cool days – didn't think it was ever going to get here! Such a pleasure to be able to stitch without having to keep drying my hands!

Once again Sue has come up with some really nice easy designs, three very different themes which I think will enhance our variety no end. I am using the "All Dressed Up" for a graduation soon so am very happy to have that in my collection and as for the "Wedding Dove" to add to our wedding card designs, SUPER, thank you Sue! The Yacht will be ideal for the men in our lives who love the sea. Have now decided to work that again in "colours" and am sure it will have a totally different effect so we have two in one!

I am finding that I am having more and more "stressful" days, so am really thankful to have my card stitching to keep me on an even keel. I went through my files a little while ago and found so many cards pricked that I have never got around to stitching so I am working methodically through those as my UFO project at the moment plus am adding to my stash of readymade cards at a rate of knots. Usually I sort out all my craft unfinished projects in January but don't seem to get past February without starting something new so am giving myself medals for sticking to my plan for once.

Hope you are all well and happy and for those that have recently been unwell do hope you are on the mend and able to enjoy your stitching once again.

Will look forward to hearing from you soon

Kind Regards,
Liz & Ned

To our South African Customers:

We will no longer be stocking coloured cards, apart from the Christmas ones (Red Green and Blue) and our basic White Embossed. As the cost of card has risen significantly, we have finally been forced to increase our price on these and they will in future be R30.00 for a pack of 6 with envelopes. Later in the year there will be Special Mixed Card Packs available as I use up what stock I still have - more on this in later newsletters..

REPEAT NOTE: WE ARE NO LONGER ACCEPTING CASH PAYMENTS TO FNB

The bank charge for the most recent payment of R95.00 in cash was R50.00 into FNB!!! So I'm sure you can appreciate why I suggest asking a friend or family who can do internet banking to pay it for you and you can give them the cash instead.

Happy Stitching,
Sue and Liz

Next newsletter possibly mid-July, depending on the weather in the UK. If it's wet I'll get some done, if not I'll be out enjoying the sunshine!
